

Open Innovation - Artificial Intelligence - and the Human Factor

Opportunities and challenges for the French-German collaboration in research and innovation

06. March 2020 in Stuttgart, Germany

Programme

10:30	Arrival / Coffee and croissants
11:00	Welcome Dr. Catherine Veber, Consul-General of France and Head of IF Stuttgart, Dr. Petra Püchner, Commissioner for Europe of the Minister of Economic Affairs, Labour and Housing Baden-Württemberg
11:20	Key notes and Panel discussion with political representatives Moderation: Dr. Petra Püchner
12:00	Key notes and Panel discussion with representatives of the industry Biomedical competences, augmented-reality-systems in the medicine enquired: Dr. Tian Qiu, Cyber Valley Title Key note Speaker from GrandEst/France tbc AI in Telemedicine Markus Lücking, FZI Research Center for Information Technology
13:00	Lunch break
14:15	Workshops: Micro BarCamp with representatives of research and industry on the scope of application of AI in the health sector WS1: Opportunities and challenges in AI Dr. Juan G. Diaz Ochoa, PerMediQ GmbH WS2: Titel tbc Speaker from France, name tbc WS3: Titel tbc enquired: Professor Christian Thies, Reutlingen Research Institute

	B2B - Meetings
15:30	Pre-booked meetings with potential cooperation partners parallel: Coffee-bar - Networking time
17:00	End of the event

Event location:

Institute Français Stuttgart

Schloßstraße 51
70174 Stuttgart
Germany